African Journal of Education and Social Sciences (AJESS), a Kibabii University quarterly publication Journal, managed by the Faculty of Education and Social Sciences is a peer reviewed and multidisciplinary in nature. It seeks to publish original research and academic scholarship that contribute to the growth of knowledge in Education and extended fields of Social Sciences. The Journal is calling for the research papers in the following areas:

- Administration & policy in education
- Curriculum, instruction & assessment
- Global & comparative education
- Higher education
- Multicultural education
- Technology & learning
- Vocational education & training
- Humanities, culture & ethics
- Sociology, gender studies & social justice
- Social change & policy.
- Race & ethnic studies
- Crime & law
- Knowledge, information, language, media & communication
- Work, economy & organizations
- Community development

Type of Research Papers

- Original research
- Research reviews
- Policy analysis

Audience

- Educators and researchers
- Professionals in community
- Government agencies/ policymakers
- Citizens with a passion for education and social sciences

Contact Address

Chief Editor
Kibabii University
African Journal of Education and Social Sciences (AJESS)
P.O Box 1699-50200
Bungoma, Kenya
Tel: 0725689152/ 020-2028660/0708085934
Email: AJESS@ Kibabiuiversity.ac.ke

Deadline: 29\textsuperscript{th} February, 2016 for the April, 2016 Publication. Other publications will be received throughout the year.

Note: For Author guidelines on the required research paper and submission please visit Kibabii library Webpage and Click on the link: African Journal of Education and Social Sciences (Author Guidelines)

Copyright © KIBU Publications.