Current Departmental Structure /Organogram

Security department falls directly under the principal's office. It's charged with ensuring safety and security of students, staff and protection of university college property. To function effectively and efficiently it's divided into; operations, investigations and intelligence units.